FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1890.

For Congress
WILLIAM T. ELLIS,
of Daviess County.

Rube Burrows, the notorious southern traitor, was captured in Alabama by a farmer named John McDuffie and two colored men, Tuesday. The same night he was killed while trying to escape, but shot two of his guards badly wounding them.

The Wheeler of the Third District met in convention and very sensibly concluded not to nominate an employee for Congress. Lewis James has declined the Republican nomination rendered him and Goodright finds himself without opposition from any source.

Mr. Will M. Hull, late of the Courier-Journal staff, has quit journalism to become an advanced agent of the Julia Marlowe Company. Miss Marlowe is now playing in Kentucky, and will appear at Bowling Green on Oct.
25. Mr. Hull preceded Author Ford as editor of the "In and about Kentucky" column of the Courier-Journal.
He is one of the brightest and best equipped young journalists the Courier-Journal ever turned out.
The professional goes greatly by his retirement to engage in another business, for which he has always had a strong liking.

The Wheelers have nominated a candidate against Mr. Ellis for Congress and it cannot be denied that the situation is thereby complicated to a considerable extent. Mr. Bourland, the nominee, has been a Democrat.
He is at present the delegate from Hopkins county to the Convention,
having been elected without opposition.
He is a farmer about 55 years old, unlettered but possessing some native ability. It now remains to be seen whether the Republicans will tacitly endorse Bourland to beat Ellis, or run a man of their own.
The delegates who were at Henderson say Lige Sebree denies that he will be a candidate and they claim that the race is made up between Bourland and Ellis. In fact they are so positive that the opinion exists that Bour-land's nomination was part of an agreement between Republicans in and out of the Wheel. The fact that a Democratic Wheeler was chosen for this purpose also strengthens this suspicion. Will Democrats forsake their party to follow such leadership?
We think not.

THE WHEELERS.

POLITICIANS GET CONTROL OF THE
HENDERSON MEETING AND
NAME A CANDIDATE.

Harvey R. Bourland The Man.
The handful of politicians who have worned themselves into the Farmers'
and Laborers' Union met at Henderson Monday, in accordance with a pre-arranged program and "nominated"
H. R. Bourland for Congress.
Altogether there were 50 delegates present and 8 of that number opposed the violation of the organic law of the order by dubbing in politics.

The meeting was called to order by
D. F. Cox, chairman of the Sebree meeting in August, who appointed a new committee on credentials, but when the convention was ready to organize refused to let a new chairman be elected and continued to preside
and carry out the cut and dried program, ruling everything out of order that did not accord with his views.

THE LIST OF DELEGATES.

The following delegates were present:
Christian—J. H. Cavanah, J. T.
Walker, M. B. Brown, Chas. L. Ritter,
Jas. A. Boyd, G. H. Myers.

Webster—David Brownrig, B. F.
Carlisle, Richard Tapp, George M.
Price, J. W. Orr, F. M. Green, J. C.
Springfield, Gid Hubbard.

The report of the credentials committee was adopted and a nomination made in short order, although other delegates were enroute from Union and Christian on the noon trains.

Of the Christian county delegation,
Mr. Ritter was the only one who voted the Democratic ticket in August. Three of the others were Republican leaders and the other two voted split tickets. Mr. E. W.

Walker, a Democratic Wheeler, was enroute, but his train did not arrive until the nomination was made.
The districts represented from this county were Fruit Hill, Stuarts, Crofton, Mt. Vernon, Kelly, and Hopkinsville No. 2. Two-thirds of the county was unrepresented.

C. W. Decker and Geo. Vargasou, representing the Owensboro Knights of Labor lodges, which had been invited to participate, were ruled out, as they were against a nomination.

The law was applied to all who undertook to oppose a nomination and H. R. Bourland was nominated and the ayes and noes called. The vote stood as follows:

FOR BOURLAND,
Henderson County—C. C. Eades, R.
H. McMullen, F. G. Eakins, R. J.
Butler, J. A. Tapp and Lewis Rem-ond.

Webster—Browning, Carlisle, Tapp,

Hubbard.

Union—Lynn.

ertson, Hull, Purcell, Sennett and Cox.

ens.

Hopkins—Gentry, Tilford, Barnett,
Mitchell, Denny, Noe, Demoss.

Hancock—Suddler, Fallon, and Brown.

Christian—Cavannah, Walker, Ritter,
Brown, Myers, and Boyd. Total 48
OPPOSED.

Taylor, Moberly and Hoobner, of Davies; Noel of McLean, Madison and Nelson of Hopkins, flatmates of Henderson and Haynes of Union.

Total 18.

A committee consisting of delegates
Crow, Short and Carlisle were appointed to notify Mr. Bourland and escort him to the stand.

Mr. Bourland appeared and after a carefully prepared speech of twenty minutes accepted the nomination, but added that he would not make a canvass in person.

After naming the following executive committee for the district, the convention at 2 p. m., adjourned:

Hancock, H. G. Smith; Hopkins, Y.
W. Gentry; Webster, David Brown-
rig; Union, Wm. Frazier; Henderson, R. H. McMullen; McLean, W. H.
Short; Davies, G. W. Sennett.

OPTION OF SOME WHEELERS.

The general opinion is that comparatively few of the Democratic

Wheeler will follow the lead of Republican politicians and bolt Ellis' nomination.

Mr. E. W. Walker, who was elected to represent Hopkinsville No. 1 at Henderson, came back utterly disgusted. He says the whole scheme was a Republican sideshow. A majority of the delegates

from this county were supporters of John Boyd for Sheriff in August and Mr. Walker refused to follow the leader's tip of such men and bolt his party nomination. The delegates were closely looked after by Lige Sebree while in Henderson, who is mentioned as the probable Republican candidate, and one of them

brought back a walking cane presented to him by that gentleman.
The whole thing was a cut and dried
plan to disrupt the Democratic party
and Mr. Walker says he will canvass the sub-unions of the county and turn the light on the work of the so-called convention at Henderson.

Mr. E. F. Cuyler, County Business Agent, says: "I was opposed to a
plan to disrupt the Democratic party
and a mistake has been made.
It is too soon yet for such a step to be taken."

Assessor D. R. Perry, a prominent Wheeler, says no Democratic Wheeler will be gullied. The Democrats will vote for Ellis. The men who went to Henderson cannot influence Den-tonic voters.

Esq. S. H. Myers, of Fruit Hill,
who represented Christian at Sebree,
kept out of the Henderson meeting, although he was chairman of the credentials committee of the adjourned meeting. He will support Ellis.

Several prominent Wheelers from country unions have been seen and all agree in the opinion that the Democratic members of the order will deprecate this attempt to run the order
into politics and will vote for Ellis.

CREAM OF NEWS.

Capt. Ellis to Speak.

Hon. W. T. Ellis will speak at the Court House next Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock and workingmen especially are invited to come out and hear him. Let him be given a rousing reception.

Another Barn Burned.

Mr. C. G. Duke had the misfortune to lose his barn and a fine crop of tobacco by fire Tuesday. He had no insurance on either the tobacco or building. This is the second barn burned in the county since the tobacco crop was housed. Last year there were six burned.

The Court of Claims.

The Christian county court of claims, composed of 36 magistrates and the County Judge, will meet Oct. 20 for the transaction of the regular annual business. The claims for 1890 will be allowed and it is quite likely that steps will be taken to secure the capture of the absconding embezzler, O. S. Brown, who decamped on Sept. 18.

A Fine Mare Dead.

One of Maj. Crumbaugh's finest brood mares died at Elkwood stock farm, near the city, Tuesday, from the effects of injuries caused by being snatched while running in the field. The mare was Harriet, by Balankee out of Orphan Girl and was one of best horses in this end of the State. Maj. Crumbaugh had only recently refused $1,500 for her.

The C. G. & M. V. Railroad.

Engineer McElfatrick left the city Tuesday morning to make a horseback survey of that portion of the route of the proposed Cumberland Gap and Mississippi Valley Railroad between Hopkinsville and the Cumberland river. The proposed line is to run from Columbus, Ky., on the Mississippi river through the lower tier of Kentucky counties to Middleborough, Ky., and Cumberland Gap.

This road is one that has long been talked of and was one of the lines to which Maj. was voted on Nov. 10, 1888, at an election subsequently held to be illegal. It is to pass through this county from east to west. The line is now being surveyed to Grayce, thence to Cadiz and Canton. This section of the road would cross the N. N. & M. V. road at Mayfield, Ky. Col. Joe Foard is interested in this line and if our people desire the road it can be built.

The soldiers' reunion the first day will undoubtedly bring out a large crowd. Gen. Sam E. Hill, an ex-Federal, and Judge Wm. Lindsay, an ex-Confederate, are the orators and will both surely be on hand and make speeches.

The floral hall under the grand stand has been fitted up especially for the ladies and much interest is being taken in the exhibits for this department.

All of the stock rings are rapidly filling up and there will be no lack of exhibits in any of them nor of entries in the speed rings.

Maj. Crumbaugh's fine stock from Elkwood farm will be on exhibition and are sure to attract much attention.

There will be no gambling or pool selling allowed on the grounds. This is to be an old-fashioned country fair and the people should co-operate to make it a success.

Season tickets are now on sale at the Garner Drug Co.'s store at reduced rates.

Next week the city will be full of visitors and the advance guard are already arriving. The bell on Friday night is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted here.

The Golden Dramatic Company will give a performance at the Opera House each night of the fair.

THROUGH THE HEART.

A Brutal Murder In Oak Grove District.

Geo. Griffey kills Geo. Rutledge. A brutal and unprovoked murder occurred on the farm of Jesse Evans in the Oak Grove district at 3 p. m. Wednesday, Oct. 8. Geo. Rutledge alias Thomas was shot and killed by Geo. Griffey, aided and abetted by three confederates. All of the parties were real. Rutledge lived in Clarksville and drove a wagon for Mr. Gracey. Geo. Griffey lived at Jesse Evans', about 14 miles south of this city, near the State line. On Tuesday night he went to Clarksville and moved a woman named Annie Carnale to Mr. Evans' to cook for Evans. It seems the woman was the mistress of Rutledge. Wednesday the latter followed her to Mr. Evans' to get some of his things, as he claimed. He went to her house and after getting some things in a valise and a bundle—it is supposed peaceably—started off towards Mr. Evans' home. Geo. Griffey, Joe Leavell, Geo. Murphy, and Wili Davie, all of whom worked for Mr. Evans, saw Rutledge leaving and gave pursuit, all of them being on foot. They divided into pairs and Griffey and Leavell followed, while Murphy and Davie cut across the field to head off Rutledge. Just as Rutledge was overtaken he backed up against a wagon wheel and said "You won't get these things unless you kill me."

To this Leavell replied "Shoot the d—d son of a —b—h, George" and without a word Griffey raised a pistol and shot Rutledge through the heart. They then picked up the things and walked off and after a short consultation with the other two all departed together.

Rutledge was left in the field and lay there until about midnight, when Esq. Barker arrived and held an inquest. The verdict implicated all four of the parties concerned and Leavell, Murphy and Davie were promptly arrested and were brought to town yesterday by special officers Ben Ward, Jas. Taylor, Joe Batts and a colored man named Barker Dinswidde. They were large in jail to await trial Saturday. Griffey who fired the fatal shot, escaped and is at large. He is in medium size black negro, about 21 years old. Rutledge was about 45 years old.

Esq. Barker came to town yesterday. He says there is great indignation among the negroes, although Rutledge lived in Clarksville. The killing was undoubtedly an unprovoked murder and the whole gang should be captured and punished.

The formal decision in the Lander-Brown contest is being held up until Robt. Lander returns, as he is out of the city. The members of the board are reticent about the result, but it is not likely that Judge Brown will lose his seat.

A Clarksville special says a burglar entered Mr. Jas. S. Parrish's room at Mrs. Homer's boarding house Monday night and succeeded in relieving Mr. Parrish of $25 in money, a fine gold watch, a diamond Masonic pin and the clothes he doffed upon retiring for the night. The empty purse was found next morning in the rear of the premises.

Mrs. Alice Hayes' Fall stock of millinery has been received, opened up, and is now on exhibition. Her goods are strictly first class and have been selected with great care as to price and quality. She desires also to inform the public that her prices are as reasonable as any in the city. She will have her regular semi-annual opening on Thursday and Friday next, to which she invites all her lady friends.

The New Postoffice Fixtures.

When the Owensboro postoffice moved into the new government building, an entire set of fixtures and boxes, which originally cost $2,400, were left on the hands of a company of gentlemen.

They were as good as new and a few days ago were purchased by Maj. Breathitt for $1,000. The fixtures have been received and are now being put in place in the corner room of the Mooney building.

There are 719 lock boxes with 20 double boxes or drawers underneath them, which are designated by letters of the alphabet.

These boxes are placed in a row beginning about fifteen feet from the door and run back in a straight line, leaving a space about one-third the width of the building, which extends back about sixty feet to a partition with a door leading to the rear room. The money order desk is immediately in front. A small apartment will be cut off into which those having business can go and take a seat at a table to fill out blanks, etc.

Mr. W. F. Raule will sit at present beside the desk. His seat will be in a triangle into which the stamp window communicates with the outside or mail room. This will enable persons to purchase stamps without entering the little room to the left. The general delivery window is between two ornamental frosted glass windows, between the money order desk and the front end of the row of lock boxes, right in front of the door and not behind the lockboxes as heretofore.

There will be enough lockboxes for all who desire them and there will be no free cell boxes. All who do not purchase lock boxes and have their own keys will be waited on from the general delivery window. Letter and paper boxes are arranged conveniently in the angles, one of the letter boxes being under the stamp window.

The space above the boxes is filled with plate glass windows that extend to the fourteen foot ceiling, the enclosure being well lighted by this means from the front doors and rear windows.

The room outside the enclosure will be lighted by gas at night and in the daytime the wide glass front makes plenty of light on the darkest days. Taken altogether the office will be for the best arranged office Hopkinsville has ever had.

It will be a credit to this city or indeed to any city not provided by the government with office furniture. Maj. Breathitt deserves the thanks of the business men and the people generally for investing so liberally in fixtures for the office. He will leave nothing undone to have his office one of the best arranged and best conducted ones in the State. His personal attention will be given to all the details and his daughters will be his assistants in the office.

Season tickets are now on sale at the Garner Drug Co.'s store at reduced rates.

Next week the city will be full of visitors and the advance guard are already arriving. The bell on Friday night is expected to eclipse anything of the kind ever attempted here.

The Golden Dramatic Company will give a performance at the Opera House each night of the fair.
